Introduction

With increasing scrutiny from both internal and external stakeholders – coupled with the continuous evolution of the regulatory framework, both in terms of complexity and volume – it is clear that the compliance function is going through a challenging time. Compliance teams which are proactive and anticipate the developments that lie ahead will be better equipped to respond effectively to these challenges, build on the capabilities of their compliance function and ultimately add real value to their business.

The Forum

Over the last few years, compliance professionals have seen a torrent of new complex regulatory controls with a huge shift in regulatory approach and intent. To ensure maximum adherence to these, industry leaders are starting to look at new ways of addressing the various challenges they face in the most cost- and resource- efficient ways. This year's International Compliance Forum will welcome a number of high caliber international speakers who will discuss how the compliance function has progressed over the years and discuss ways in which organizations can use their compliance function to enable change and offer their business the competitive advantage it needs.

Target Audience

The conference is addressed to professionals, senior executives and more specifically members of Board of Directors from the following:

- Accounting, audit and tax firms
- Banks and other financial institutions
- Insurance and re-insurance firms
- Law firms and legal consultants
- Investment firms
- Company formation and administration firms
- Trust service providers
- Compliance consultancy firms
- Wealth management firms
- Corporate service providers
- Fiduciary service providers
- Local and international regulatory authorities

With the Support of

Being one of the 217 chapters of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE), the Cyprus Chapter of the ACFE is an anti-fraud organization that serves professionals, students and communities in Cyprus. The objective of the Cyprus Chapter of ACFE is to promote improved fraud detection and deterrence. This is achieved through enhancement of knowledge, promotion of networking opportunities and support for its members and the business, academic and government community.

Through its representation of twelve member banks, that hold more than 90% market share and provide a full range of banking services, the Association of Cyprus Banks (ACB) is the voice of the Cyprus banking system. Its primary aim is to promote best practices for the interest of the banking sector and the local economy as a whole. The ACB is a non-profit organization through which common positions are formulated and promoted on banking and financial issues, when local legislative and governmental policies are determined. In communicating the industry's views, the ACB cooperates closely with the Central Bank of Cyprus, the House of Representatives and various Ministries as well as other private and public bodies. The Association also has a close relationship with media representatives, the European Banking Federation (of which it is a member), national banking associations and global organizations.

The Cyprus Fiduciary Association was established in November 2011 by the initiative of leading firms in Cyprus providing fiduciary, management and administration services to companies and other vehicles engaged in international business activities or involved in international business structures. The objective of the Association is to serve the Administrative Services Providers (ASPs) by promoting their interests, supporting their operations and educating their staff. The aim is to assist in creating a solid and strong fiduciary and wider international business sector in Cyprus, operating on high professional standards and integrity. CFA is recognised as a representative body of ASPs in Cyprus before public and regulatory authorities, other associations and the business community in Cyprus and abroad. The Association purports to cooperate with all bodies active in the international business sector of Cyprus in order to further develop the country's services, advance the supervisory framework and promote it as a reputable international business centre.

CANCELLATION POLICY

- Participation fees are paid in advance.
- Cancellations must be made in writing two days before the start of the conference, otherwise you will be charged 50% of the participation fee.
- In case of a no show without a written cancellation two days before the conference, you will be charged 100% of the participation fee.

CONFERENCES: TERMS & CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

Confirmation of your registration will be sent as soon as possible once we have received your application in writing – either online or by fax or mail. Please note that, in order for you to take part in the conference, your participation fee must be paid in full two days before the first day's deliberations. Please note, furthermore, that the organisers reserve the right to make changes to the details – though not to the substance – of the conference without prior warning, even if these do not appear in the programme because they occurred after printing and due to unforeseen circumstances. Additionally, you should be aware that, if the organisers are obliged to cancel a conference, they have a responsibility to reimburse any fees paid. They cannot be held responsible, however, for any consequential damage or loss. Finally, please note that an application to participate and an online registration are considered legally binding.
