Subject: ICC YAF: Trends in Arbitration rule-making (ONLINE 29 July 2021 16.30-18.30 Cyprus Time)

Dear Members,

Within the last two years many arbitral institutions have reformed their arbitration rules. Alongside the ICC with its new Rules of Arbitration, which entered into force on 01 January 2021, other arbitral institutions such as the ones in Denmark, Finland, Italy UK, Switzerland, or the IBA have also issued new rules.

This YAF event will provide an overview of the different reform projects and will identify the most important trends in recent arbitration rule-making.

A distinguished and international panel of arbitration practitioners, bringing together the expertise from many different European countries, will offer a concise update on the novelties and innovations contained in the new arbitration rules of the ICC, IBA, Swiss Arbitration Centre, LCIA, CAM, DIA and FIA.

Based on these snapshots, the panellists will define the overarching trends in recent arbitration rule-making in Europe, explore the underlying reasons for the reforms, and discuss the wider implications for users and practitioners.

Who should attend: All lawyers specialising in dispute resolution, in-house counsel and entrepreneurs who want to be up-to-date with regards to the latest development in arbitration rule-making in Europe.
