To: Members of the Cyprus-Russian Business Association

Return to a new normal with an exclusive event in London
Exclusive Targeted Event with the Russian Business Community

Anticipating that we are now entering a new, post covid era, the Cyprus Russian Business Association is organising an exclusive business event in London on December 8, 2021.

Due to the good epidemiological situation both in Cyprus and in the UK, we have decided to proceed with the organization of a controlled high profile B2B event at the Oriental Club in London. During the exclusive event a maximum of ten Cyprus Companies will meet with at least 20 Russian London based Companies attending the event who are interested to establish business relations with Cyprus.

A specialized London based company has been subcontracted to attract the relevant participants and in cooperation with our partners in London the success of this event is practically guaranteed.

The event is priced at €1000 + VAT (total cost €1190) and entails targeted B2B meetings, in an exclusive club followed by lunch.

To avoid misunderstandings, since we plan to adhere to the 10 number participants, we are obliged to follow the first come first served rule. Priority will be given to the members of the Cyprus-Russian Business Association until Monday 1st November, when it will be then opened to the Membership of the CCCI. Upon receiving your participation form, an invoice will be forwarded to you, or you can deposit the amount in one of the following accounts.
